

10 Questions for the “Get Wired” Amazing Maze. Answer correctly to go the right way.

- 1 Question: On October 4, 1957, what satellite was launched, becoming the first satellite to officially orbit the Earth?
Straight: Beatnik 1
Left: Spudgun 1
Right: Sputnik 1
- 2 Question: In 1982, Time magazine named the computer as
Straight: Man of the Year
Left: Machine of the Year
Right: Technology of the Year
- 3 Question: In October 1994, Jeff Bezos started his new Web business Amazon.com What was his original choice of name for it?
Right: Cadabra as in abracadabra.
Straight: Bebuzz
Left: Google
- 4 Question: What was the first video game introduced in 1972 by Noel Bushnell, who created Atari?
Left: Pacman
Straight: Pong
Right: Ping
- 5 Question: The button that switches off the ringer on a Japanese cell phone is called what?
Left: The myuto button
Right: The mute button
Straight: The manners button
- 6 Question: The first digital image editing software was called what?
Straight: PhotoMac
Left: Photoshop
Right: Macphoto
- 7 Question: What type of camera did Edwin Land develop?
Left: Digital camera
Straight: Polaroid camera
Right: Video camera
- 8 Question: In the late 1700s Luigi Galvani, noticed that frogs' legs twitched when stimulated by external electric sources. In 1800 Alessandro Volta built on this work and created the first what?
Left: Volt meter
Right: Battery
Straight: Taser gun
- 9 Question: Which technology, seen on consumer products, in libraries and on a wide range of other items, was inspired by Morse code during its development?
Left: Pricing labels
Right: QR code
Straight: Barcode
- 10 Question: While solar-powered refrigerators exist, the cost is too high to use them for food storage in developing countries. But they are used for what purpose instead?
Right: Keeping films cold
Left: Ice packs for injuries
Straight: Vaccine storage